

The George & Catherine (Low) Fogleman Historical Marker Project

Date: October 1, 2008

Proceeds to be used for funding of the historical marker

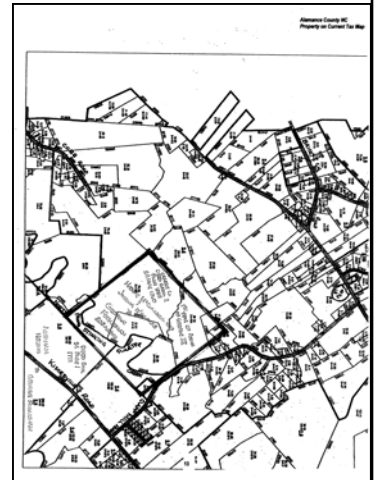

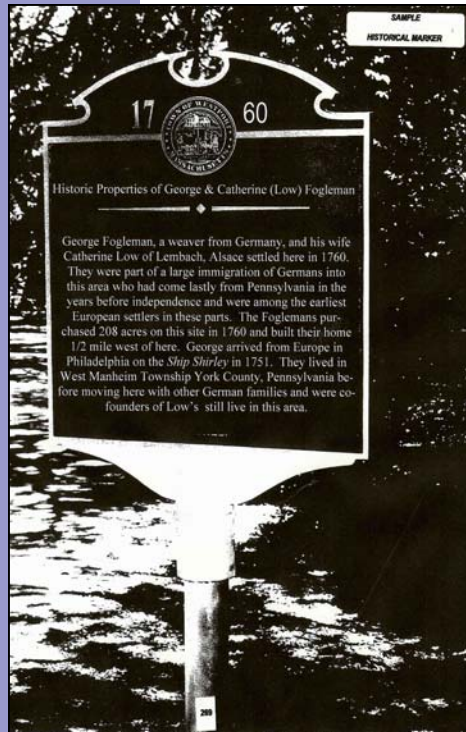

An application has been submitted to the Alamance County (NC) Historic Properties Commission in Graham for a historical marker recognizing the home place of George & Catherine (Low) Fogleman. One of the four tract(s) of property is currently owned by Wade C. Euliss who has given written permission to the Alamance County Historic Properties Commission or our Committee for the placement of the marker. When approved, a minimum of $1,600 will be needed for the Commission to move forward with this project. Your donation to help with this effort will assure future descendants about the location our ancestors first lived!

Location: In right-of-way of 4205 Clapp Mill Road
Burlington, North Carolina
Property Tracts are known as Euliss;
Garner - McLendon; McLendon —
Meyland; and Sawyer tracts.
